

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS OUTING

The first annual outing and beach party of the C. K. Marx Company No. 8, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, was held last night at the Alhambra, Bergen Beach. There was a large attendance and the affair was a huge success. Alex Williams, the manager of the Alhambra, gave the party a free rein. The grand march was started at 8:30 o'clock, and, after several dances, an exhibition drill was given by the C. K. Marx Company and the Arpad Company No. 1 of Manhattan. Two handsome gold watch charms were presented to Lewis Evans and Max Meyerson of the C. K. Marx Company during the evening.

The C. K. Marx Company was organized one year ago yesterday. The officers and committees in charge were as follows:

Joseph H. Deskau, captain; Otto W. Krause, first lieutenant; Bernhard Cetran, second lieutenant; Charles K. Marx, recorder; Henry Aaron, treasurer; William Hutchings, first sergeant; Samuel Singer, second sergeant; Svan Stomm, color bearer; Adjutant George Smith, drill master.

Floor manager, Captain Joseph H. Deskau; assistant floor manager, Lieutenant Bernhard Cetran. Floor committee—Adjutant George Smith, Sergeant William Hutchings, M. H. Moskovits, Gustave S. Hays, Louis Miller, E. Robinson, D. A. Hurley, Isaac Marks, Samuel Grossman, Joel Arnold, M. J. Annenberg, Samuel Glantz, M. Meyerson.

Reception committee—Lieutenant O. W. Krause, chairman; Sergeant Henry Aaron, Sergeant Samuel Singer, Louis Evens, John Ollry, Adolph Klaus, Svan Stromm, H. Weitzer, J. L. Cohen, Dr. H. S. Schlevin, L. J. Saltzman, S. Finkel, A. Levenson.

Committee of arrangements—Sergeant Charles K. Marx, chairman; John E. Dodge, Otto W. Krause, George Bendon, Bernhard Cetran.

Among the prominent personages present were: Brigadier General Henry B. Buckingham, Colonel George H. Guardeneer, Grand Chancellor Frank J. Martin, Grand Keeper of Records John J. Acker, Colonel H. H. Coons, Major Solly May, Captain H. L. Potter and Captain S. S. Zarek.